

NCLEX-RN Pass Rates for First-Time Candidates (ASN)

The College's School of Nursing tracks pass rates for licensure examinations. The acceptable NCLEX-RN pass rate mandated by the Georgia Board of Nursing is 80 percent and this is the benchmark for SGSC. In all years since 2013 with the exception of 2015, SGSC cohorts have exceeded the mandated benchmark.

Exhibit 1: South Georgia State College vs. University of System of Georgia State College Sector, NCLEX-RN Pass Rates for First Time Candidates

Source: Georgia Board of Nursing

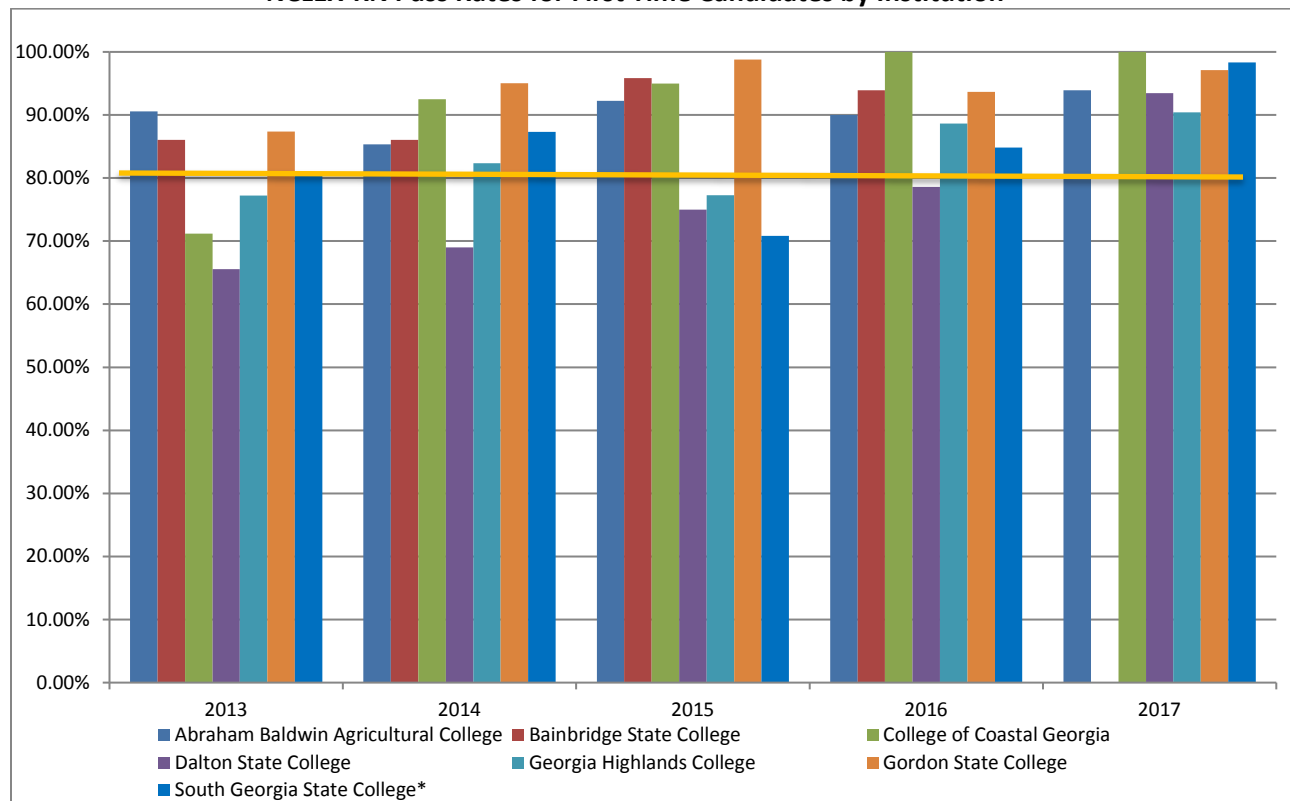

Note: Each year above is representative of a first time candidate cohort. The pass rate is the number of candidates who have passed the NCLEX-RN exam divided by the total number of candidates. The benchmark of 80 percent (represented by the orange line above) is mandated by the Georgia Board of Nursing.

	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	Five Year Average
South Georgia State College	80.95%	87.30%	70.83%	84.85%	98.31%	84.45%
State College Sector Average	79.67%	85.05%	89.03%	90.80%	94.97%	87.75%

Source: Georgia Board of Nursing

Note: Each year above is representative of a first time candidate cohort. The pass rate is the number of candidates who have passed the NCLEX-RN exam divided by the total number of candidates. The benchmark of 80 percent is mandated by the Georgia Board of Nursing.

Exhibit 2: South Georgia State College vs. University of System of Georgia State College Sector, NCLEX-RN Pass Rates for First Time Candidates by Institution

Source: Georgia Board of Nursing

Note: Each year above is representative of a first time candidate cohort. The pass rate is the number of candidates who have passed the NCLEX-RN exam divided by the total number of candidates. The benchmark of 80 percent is mandated by the Georgia Board of Nursing.