You are receiving this because your 2014-2015 was selected for verification of your high school completion. Please check the appropriate box and submit one of the following documents to the Office of Financial Aid that indicate your high school completion status when you will begin college in 2014–2015:

___  A copy of the student’s high school diploma.

___  A copy of the student’s final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.

___  A copy of the student’s General Educational Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript.

___  An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor’s degree.

___  If State law requires a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.

___  If State law does not require a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by the student’s parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and documents the successful completion of a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.
