

Information on Douglas and Waycross declarations

South Georgia State College supports our community partners as they work to limit the spread of COVID-19. Faculty and staff are encouraged to do their part by promoting social distancing, avoiding gatherings and looking for alternative ways to support local businesses. We encourage you to be aware of the responses of our local communities.

For Douglas residents: At the regular Douglas City Commission meeting on Monday, March 23, 2020, Mayor Tony Paulk issued a Declaration of Local Emergency to help stop the spread of the Coronavirus. Beginning March 24, 2020, 8:00 a.m., a Declaration was put in place for the safety and wellbeing of local citizens. The entire declaration, ordinance, and other information can be found at <https://www.cityofdouglas.com/>

For Waycross residents: At a special called City of Waycross Commission meeting on Thursday, March 26, 2020, the City Commission issued a Declaration of Local Emergency to help combat the spread of COVID-19; Coronavirus. The declaration took effect beginning on March 27, 2020 at 8:00 a.m. The entire declaration and other information can be found at <http://www.warecounty.com/>

Continue to monitor the SGSC update page at <http://www.sgsc.edu/alert.cms> and the CDC at <https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/index.html> for additional information.